FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Giroux Glass Appoints Jeff Heymann as Senior Director of Major Projects

LOS ANGELES, CA, September 6, 2023 – Giroux Glass, Inc. is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeffrey Heymann to the role of senior director of major projects. With over 35 years of experience in the exterior façade industry, Heymann brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to his new position.

Heymann's extensive background encompasses various areas within the industry, including sales, engineering, manufacturing, estimating, project management, and field operations. His unique understanding of the complexity of these functions ensured seamless project execution while earning him the trust and respect of colleagues and clients alike.

"Nurturing a team of talented professionals who deliver exceptional results is vital for our continued growth," said Nataline Lomedico, CEO/President of Giroux Glass, Inc. "I'm excited to welcome Jeff Heymann to our leadership team. His unparalleled industry experience and strategic acumen will contribute significantly here at Giroux."

Heymann's most recent tenure was at MiTek - Benson, where he held various senior positions over twenty years. His proficiency in strategic planning and sales management resulted in the implementation of best practices in the curtainwall and façade cladding industry.

"The Giroux culture resonates strongly with me, and I look forward to leveraging my experience and strong trade partner-first approach to lead major projects and drive exceptional outcomes," commented Heymann. "Giroux Glass has a strong reputation in the industry, and I'm excited to contribute to its continued success."

Heymann's expertise and leadership were instrumental in the success of projects such as the Freedom Tower, Tower Four, 15 Central Park West, Manhattan West, and numerous other high-profile developments in New York, Boston, Washington, D.C., Seattle, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. His extensive business travels have taken him to Europe and Asia, providing him with invaluable global insights into the industry.

Greg Wright, V.P. of Nevada operations at Giroux Glass, expressed enthusiasm for Heymann joining the team, saying, "Jeff's history in delivering complex projects aligns perfectly with our commitment to excellence. We're confident his leadership will further enhance our capabilities and elevate the level of service we provide to our clients."

Marty McKinley, V.P. of Arizona operations, added, "Jeff's wealth of experience and diverse skills make him an ideal addition to our team. His strategic approach and deep understanding of the industry will undoubtedly contribute to the successful execution of major projects and drive excellence in the field."

Jeff Heymann earned his bachelor's degree from the State University of New York College at Buffalo. Additionally, he pursued business and history majors at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio.

The addition of Jeff Heymann to Giroux Glass's management team further solidifies the company's position as an industry leader.
